

HOMEWORK GUIDE 4TH GRADE

WEEK OF 9-25-17

	Language Arts	Math
MONDAY	1. Read your independent reading book for 20 minutes. 2. Some people use pet names, favorite foods, sports, or hobbies for their email addresses (for example, purplesoccer@gmail.com ). Choose a character from your book and create an email address for that character. [If you are reading nonfiction, choose an appropriate email address for the topic instead of for a character.] 3. Explain why that email address is appropriate for that character (topic). Use at least two sentences. 4. Remember to put the title of the book and the date on the page. 5. Use Spelling City to review.	WB 40
TUESDAY	1. Read your independent reading book for 20 minutes. 2. Choose a character that you might like to interview. Write five interview questions for that character to answer. [If you are reading nonfiction, write five questions that can be answered from reading the book and answer them.] 3. Write the answers to the questions as though you are the character. 4. Remember to put the title of the book and the date on the page. 5. Use Spelling City to review for the test on Thursday.	WB Handout
WEDNESDAY	1. Read your independent reading book for 20 minutes. 2. Pretend you are the author of your book. Your publisher has told you that the title does not fit the book. Think of another title and explain why it is a better fit for the book. Use at least two sentences to explain. 3. Use Spelling City to review.	WB 42
THURSDAY	1. Read your independent reading book for 20 minutes. 2. Choose a character from the book. Consider that character's personality, character traits, habits, and activities. List 5 things you might find in that character's pocket. For example, you might find a magic wand in Harry Potter's pocket. [If you are reading nonfiction, write 5 things you would still like to learn or discover about the topic.] 3. Explain why each of the items you suggest is something the character might have or carry. Write one sentence of explanation for each item. That's 5 sentences total.	WB 44
FRIDAY	Read for at least 30 minutes over the weekend.	None
